Corruption in Nigeria - Wikipedia

Government is too big, too expensive, too in debt, and it is not going to want to change. Like the information technology bubble in 1999, the housing bubble in 2007, and the Wall Street bubble in 2008, the fourth bubble that is government threatens our economy. Government employee unions are the new elite, and we need a replacement model. 4.

'Following the science' rhetoric led to delay to UK COVID

By the early 1900s, Britain had viewed Germany as the greatest threat to its dominant position in the world. Arguably Britain entered the First World War for that very reason, to block Germany's rise and cut it down to size. So the second time around, once Germany crossed a certain line, it was inevitable that Britain would oppose Germany.
